DIED IN BLUE DAM POND.

Remains of Michael Graham Recov ered With Grappling Irons.

The body of Michael Graham, formerly of this city, who wandered away from St. Agnes' Hospital, where he was being treated for spinal trouble, and who was drowned in Blue Dam Pond, was found yesterday.

The work of grappling was begun about midnight, and was continued without a stop until the body was found. About two hours after daybreak the grapping from struck fast, and the men knew that their work was practically over. Ropes were made fast to the body, and it was towed into The water where the dead man was found is about twenty feet deep, and the spot is close to where the cane and hat were found last Sunday.

Mrs. Michael Graham, the wife of the victim, and Mrs. Mary E. Barney, her mother, came to the Blue Pond Dam in a carriage as soon as the news of the recovery of the body reached them. Mrs. Graham was overcome with grief, and screamed at the horrible sight the body of her husband

BOND ISSUE ILLEGAL.

Serious Condition Confronting the

City Authorities of Allegheny. Pittsburg, Pa., Sept. 1 .- An issue of municipal bonds to the amount of $1,400,000, made recently by the city of Allegheny, is pronounced illegal by the attorney of firm of Whann & Schlesinger, of New York.

This conclusion is based on the fact that the call for the election to authorize the bond issue was published in three Pittsburg newspapers, instead of in the news-paper of the district where the bonds were n be issued, as the law requires. If this is correct, all the bonds issued by the city of Allegheny since 1874 are involved. A special meeting of the finance committee
